Parent/carer information - December 15th 2020

Many of you have notified us that you are keeping your children at home this week. We understand if you wish to keep your children at home to avoid the possibility of having to self-isolate over the Christmas period.

Home learning will be provided by teachers for Thursday and Friday through Hwb and Microsoft Teams.

On Tuesday and Wednesday, children who come to school don't have to wear school uniform.

Virtual Christmas Concert

Our Christmas concert is now ready to be premiered on Wednesday!

Enter the link below into your internet browser and the show will go live at 6:30pm

Important information - Covid

The latest information regarding testing centres is available on the Torfaen website.

<https://www.torfaen.gov.uk/en/News/2020/December/03-Mobile-COVID-19-Testing-Centres-in-Torfaen.aspx>

Headteachers will be on duty and liaising with Test, Trace and Protect (TTP) over the Christmas period and if we have a positive case in school during the holidays that will affect any classes I will be in touch to inform parents that children and staff if there is a need to self-isolate for 10 days (changed yesterday by Welsh Government)

Wishing you all a very happy, healthy Christmas.
Keep safe and take care.
We will see you in the new year.

Best wishes.

Sarah Truelove
Headteacher
